

Social Media Posting Policy

OhioGuidestone is committed to creating an online community that reflects our values and holds to the standards of our brand. As such, the following guidelines have been created for our social networking pages, including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn and YouTube.

When posting on social media as part of the OhioGuidestone online community, we ask you not to post content that:

- is not in line with OhioGuidestone's values
- does not hold to the standards of the OhioGuidestone brand
- is threatening, abusive, obscene, indecent, or objectionable.
- is deceptive, false, or misleading
- violates the intellectual property rights of other people
- is illegal
- references a third party website or is self-promoting spam
- is inappropriate, offensive, or hateful

We reserve the right to remove any content or block users that violate our guidelines, or that we determine as otherwise offensive or inappropriate.
