Columbus CEO Names OhioGuidestone
A Winner of the Columbus Top Workplaces 2020 Award

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 1, 2020 – OhioGuidestone has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by Columbus CEO. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution and connection, just to name a few.

“For more than a decade, the Top Workplaces award has helped organizations stand out among their competitors to attract talent,” said Eric Rubino, CEO of Energage. “This differentiation is more important than ever in today’s tight labor market. Establishing a continuous conversation with employees so you have a deep understanding of your unique culture is proven to help achieve higher referral rates, lower employee turnover, and double the employee engagement levels. No longer is recognition simply a much-deserved cause for celebration, but it’s fast becoming mission-critical to establish a competitive advantage for recruitment and retention.”

“OhioGuidestone thrives not just because of our mission to provide individuals of all ages with pathways for growth, achievement and lifelong success, but because of our people and our culture,” said Patti Stumpp, Vice President of Human Resources. “We strive to provide an environment where people can do their best work, so they can bring out the best in those we serve and each other. Our employees bring compassion and commitment to their jobs every day, especially now as they provide critical support to so many during these uncertain times. This award pays tribute to their contributions and gives each individual a sense that they are an integral part of the bigger picture.”
